

In compliance with the Protection of Pupil Rights Amendment (PPRA), the MPSD will notify parents in advance if surveys will be conducted with students pertaining to protected information such as illegal behavior or religious practices. Parents will be given enough notice in case they chose to opt their child out of participating in the survey.